

Checklist for LIVE Patient Examination

☐ Select patient
<ul> <li>Make sure patients meet all your criteria and are familiar with exam process and</li> </ul> time commitment.
lue Research where and when you want to take the exam
• Especially important for students whose state accepts more than one state/regional exam and/or whose school offers a pre-graduation exam.
What date and location is best for you and your patients?
☐ Make travel and lodging arrangements for you and your patients
Confirm your reservation(s) a few days before exam.
• Don't forget about lunch/snacks.
☐ Verify if malpractice/liability insurance is needed
• If insurance is provided, research that the coverage is appropriate.
• If not provided, obtain insurance several weeks in advance of exam day.
☐ Complete and mail/submit application, making sure to include all supporting documents
☐ Know your candidates' guide
